

I do not believe broadcast ownership should be expanded. It needs to be limited so that corporations cannot dominate the news citizens receive with their own political views. Citizens cannot get different viewpoints if all the major news outlets are owned, and therefore controlled, by the same people.